

REMOTE ENGAGEMENT ESSENTIALS

Empower your team to purposefully engage and coordinate with remote communities using the Remote Engagement Essentials Workshops

Who should do this course and why?

The Remote Engagement Essentials (REE) workshops are for NTPS staff and NTG partners that work directly with, provide services to or make decisions that affect remote communities of the Northern Territory.

If this describes your workplace, the Remote Engagement Essentials training will help you to understand the importance and application methods for engagement to improve remote engagement practices.

Course providers

The REE Workshops are arranged and funded by the Remote Information and Engagement team.

The workshop is led by licensed IAP2 trainers, Rob Gravestock and Michelle Feenan (Engagement Plus) and includes presentations on the Aboriginal Interpreters Service and BushTel.

Booking a session

The workshop is hosted over 2 days and is conducted face-to-face.

Workshops are held each year in: Darwin, Alice Springs, Katherine, Tennant Creek and Nhulunbuy.

Interested candidates can sign up to available sessions through the MyLearning course. Check out the next page for more details.

MyLearning is the NT Governments eLearning platform. Using the REE Workshop course on MyLearning, participants can sign up to available sessions and complete pre-workshop tasks.
